TED Full Support to Education Scholarship Program Start

TED University's parent organization Turkish Education Association provides scholarships to successful students who do not have access to a qualified education due to financial difficulties. Since its establishment in 1928, the Turkish Education Association aims "to contribute to equal opportunities in education and to educate well-equipped generations", providing scholarships to successful students with limited financial means.

Full Support Scholarship is granted to academically successful students who study at public schools and have limited financial means. In addition to academic and psycho-social follow-up of these students, activities are organized to support their social and cultural development.

Within the scope of the Full Support Scholarship;

- Student's transition to the interview stage is assessed by considering the score obtained from High School Entrance Exam,
- Candidates who receive positive evaluations by the Turkish Education Association are included in the scholarship system,
- Students' are given book-stationery, clothing and pocket money support,
- Besides academic support, students are given sports and arts trainings determined by specialist educators,
- A free shuttle service is provided for the transportation of students in all activities to be held within the scope of the Full Support Scholarship,
- Students are allowed to participate in cultural and art activities (ballet, theater, opera, concerts, etc.) during their scholarship period,
- Students' personal development is supported by seminars given by experts,
- Students with disabilities who are included in the Full Support Scholarship benefit from all the facilities mentioned above, and in addition to this, a special service is provided for the students.

The 2021-2022 academic year of the English education program of the Full Support Scholarship Program, carried out in cooperation with the Turkish Education Association (TED) and TED University, started with the first online courses. In the program, which will be carried out online in the fall due to the pandemic, 9th, 10th and 11th-grade high school students in Adana, Ankara, Diyarbakır, İzmir, and Malatya have had the opportunity to come together in English lessons coordinated by the Department of TEDU English Language Teaching.

Hello Tomorrow Turkey Challenge 2021

At the event on 6 July 2021 Turkey's best science and technology-developing startups met with international innovators and VCs. We aim to create benefits for Turkish entrepreneurs and to strengthen the local entrepreneurship ecosystem by transferring the experiences of leading deep tech entrepreneurs in the international arena to Turkey, by hosting about 300 of the best innovators.

The finalist startups pitched their innovative solutions at Hello Tomorrow Turkey Challenge 2021 in front of our prestigious jury members, who are leaders in their respective technology fields and who selected the Top 3 Turkey winners. The winning startups will participate in the Hello Tomorrow Global Summit, one of the world's largest science and technology entrepreneurship initiatives, on December 2 – 3 2021 in Paris and will meet over 200 international technology investors. These entrepreneurs will have the opportunity to develop and promote their businesses and create important sales channels.

Dr. Sanem Yalçıntaş, Director of Research & Technology & Innovation, TED University participated to the event as a guest speaker.
